

6 Steps to Obtaining a Degree in Special Education at Utah State University

- 1. Apply to Utah State University
Apply as an pre-special education major <http://www.usu.edu/admissions/>

- 2. Meet with a Department of Special Education and Rehabilitation (SPER) Advisor
The Special Education Advisor is Darcie Peterson
Emma Eccles Jones College of Education – Room 371
Office Phone: (435) 797-3252 email: darcie.peterson@usu.edu

The Distance Mild/Moderate Program Advisor is Becky Morgan
Office Phone (435) 797-7575 email: becky.morgan@usu.edu

- 3. Apply for Financial Aid <http://www.usu.edu/finaid/>
Discuss various financial aid opportunities with the Special Education Advisor darcie.peterson@usu.edu or becky.morgan@usu.edu (The Distance Mild/Moderate Program Advisor)

- 4. Attend Orientations
SOAR: Required for incoming freshmen <http://www.usu.edu/soar/>
Connections: Not required. However, talk with Darcie Peterson to see if this course would be beneficial to you. <http://www.usu.edu/connections/>

- 5. Complete your Special Education Program prerequisites
Go to <http://sper.usu.edu/undergrad> Click on your preferred area of emphasis (e.g., Early childhood, MM, Severe). See “SPER Admissions Checklist”. Also, see SPER Test and Experience Requirements.

- 6. Apply to the Special Education program. Go to <http://sper.usu.edu/undergrad>
Apply by October 1st. Start early and check with Darcie or Becky if questions arise.